NEWS RELEASE

NEW TETON COUNTY MAGISTRATE JUDGE ANNOUNCED September 13, 2013

The Seventh Judicial District Magistrates Commission has selected Jason David Walker as the new Teton County Magistrate Judge. Effective January 2, 2014, Judge Walker will fill the vacancy left by the retirement of the Honorable Colin Luke.

The Magistrates Commission Chair, Administrative District Judge Jon J. Shindurling, announced the appointment today, following interviews before the Commission in Driggs, Idaho. Judge Shindurling indicated that there were 3 highly qualified applicants interviewed for the position, and that both he and the Magistrates Commission were confident that the people of Teton County and the Seventh Judicial District would be well served by the appointee.

Judge Walker attended Brigham Young University, receiving his Bachelor's Degree in 1995, and completed his Law Degree in 1998 at the University of Idaho College of Law in Moscow, Idaho. He was a Law Clerk in Minidoka County for the Honorable J. William Hart. From August 1999 to May 2003 he was a practicing attorney and became a partner in the Law Firm of Ling and Robinson. He successfully ran and served as the elected Prosecutor for Minidoka County from November, 2003, to June, 2007. From June, 2007, until the present, Jason Walker has served as the magistrate judge for Camas County in the Fifth Judicial District.
